The bee didn't like Mondays very much. He often felt quite sad on a Monday.

Most of the time, the bee's wings were a nice golden colour, like honey. But when he felt sad, his wings turned blue.

When the plants noticed that they knew something was up.

"Keep smiling, Bee!" they said.

"Not today," the bee replied, looking ever so sad.

He was so sad, in fact, that he flew round the garden so slowly that he started flying backwards
